Petersburg, May 1. N. S.

HIS Czariſh Majeſty has had an Account from the Baron de Schaffroff, at Conſtantinople, that when the Keys of Aſoph were brought thither, ſeveral Turkiſh Miniſters of Diſtinction came to viſit him, and wiſh him Joy of the proſpect of the continuance of Peace between the two Courts, aſſuring him, that the greateſt part of the Divan were inclinable to it; and that the Mufti had proteſted againſt the War, and the Janizaries would not hear any mention made of a Campaign. We have ſince had the agreeable News of the Confirmation of the Peace, and that the Articles were Sign'd. The Velt-Marſhal Czeremetoff, and the High-Admiral Apraxin, are daily expected here. The Daniſh Secretary, Monſieur Pfalck, has frequent Conferences with his Majeſty concerning the Affairs of Pomerania.

Frankfort, May 15. N. S. Several Hundred Recruits are paſs'd thorough this Place for the Imperial Regiments in Flanders. They have a report here, that a Body of Ten thouſand Huſſars will march for the Low Countries, as ſoon as the Emperor is Crown'd King of Hungary. The Regiment of Diesbach is marched for Vado to embark upon the Confederate Fleet for Barcelona. The Margrave of Brandenburg Bareith died the laſt Week. The Duke Regent of Wirtemberg is at preſent forming the Army of the Empire in the Lines of Etlingen, with great application.

Frankfort, May 19. N. S. We have intelligence from Alſace, that the Marſhal de Bezons intended to form the French Army near Haguenau this Week, and that the Marſhal d'Harcourt was expected at Strasburg with a Train of Artillery to open the Campaign with ſome Enterprize of Importance, but the greateſt part of the German Troops which are to compoſe the Army of the Empire, being already arrived in the Lines of Etlingen, and we having certain advice, that the Regiment of Dragoons of Schonborn, and the Imperial Cuiraſſiers of Neiubourg, are in full march towards the Upper Rhine, thorough the Upper Palatinate, and the Territories of the late Margrave of Brandenbourg Bareith, we are in no apprehenſions of what the French may undertake upon the Upper Rhine. The Margravine of Brandenbourg Olnotzback is brought to bed of a young Prince to the great Joy of that Court.

Scaffhouſe, May 12. N. S. We have Advice here, that the Canton of Zurich had ſent a Deputy to the three Leagues of the Griſons, to demand their Aſſiſtance, in the Name of both the Cantons of Zurich and Berne, in caſe they ſhould have occaſion for it, purſuant to their ancient Alliances; and that ſuch Officers of the Griſons as were willing to engage in the Service of thoſe Cantons might have Permiſſion ſo to do; and we are aſſured that the Griſons have agreed to both the Propoſals. The Troops of Zurich and Berne gain Ground daily in the Thurgaw, and as they paſs, take an Oath of Fidelity from the Principal of the Communalty. The Vallaiſans, at the requeſt of the Catholick Cantons, have declared that they will put all their Militia under Arms, to make a Diverſion upon the Canton of Berne, if they ſhould come to an open Rupture. The Inhabitants of four or five Towns in the lower Tockenburg having at firſt taken the part of the Abbot of St. Gall, and afterwards taken an Oath of Fidelity to the Regency, and then gone over to the Abbot, leaving their Wives and Children behind them to have Subſiſtance in that Country, and give them Intelligence; the Officers of Zurich and Bern, that are in Tockenburg, have confiſcated the Goods of all thoſe Families, and ſent them to their Husbands and Fathers who are now in Weil for the defence of the Place.

Baſil, May 26. N. S. The Town of Weil is ſurrendred to the Troops of the Canton of Zurich and Berne, who having put a ſtrong Garriſon into the Place marched directly to Gaſſan, which immediately put it ſelf under their Protection. Theſe Troops have not only ſeized on the ſtrong Caſtles of the Upper and Lower Thierberg, but have likewiſe made themſelves Maſters of the Abbey of St. Gall. In the mean time another Body of the Troops of Zurich entred the Town of Mellingen, which ſurrendred at Diſcretion: After which both the Armies marched to Bremgarten, a ſmall Town upon the Rus, which will not be able to make any great Reſiſtance. The Neutral Cantons endeavour to diſpoſe both Parties to an Accommodation, and they are not without hopes of effecting it.

Berlin, May 27. N. S. Prince Menzikoff paſſed through Swed on Monday laſt in his way for Pomerania. Upon the Advices that the Peace is concluded between the Turks and the Muſcovites, the latter are ſaid to deſign to augment their Troops in Pomerania to the Number of Forty thouſand Men. They write from Dreſden, that Monſieur Bielinski, Marſhal of the Crown of Poland, was gone through Dreſden to wait on King Auguſtus at Carelsbad. Duke Chriſtian of Saxe-Weiſſenfels, who ſucceeds the late Duke John-George his Brother, is lately married to the Counteſs-Dowager of Mansfeld at Artern.

Hamburg, May 27. N. S. We have Advice from Vienna, that Prince Antony de Lichtenſtein ſome Days ago retired to his Country Seat in Moravia; and that the Prince de Trautſon, the Count de Wratiſlas, and the Baron de Seilern, have lately received diſtinguiſhing Marks of Favour from his Imperial Majeſty; and that the latter was named among other Commiſſioners to examine the Count de la Verne. Upon the Tenth of this Month Te Deum was Sung, and a triple Diſcharge was made of the Artillery, that being the Anniverſary for the Deliverance of Barcelona, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, from the Siege of the French and Spaniſh Troops. Our Letters from Dantzick bring us various Reports as to the Reſolutions of the Senate and Burgeſſes of that Place; ſome ſay they will remain firm to the utmoſt Extremity, rather than agree to the Propoſals of the Muſcovites; but freſher Advices bring, that they will, inſtead of the Hundred thouſand Crowns which they demand, furniſh them with a quantity of Corn of an equal Value at their Departure.
